Two Norman vocalists on Love Song CD

For The Transcript

Two local church soloists were selected for an album of Oklahoma voices performing their favorite love songs. Kent Jones Productions announces the statewide release of Oklahoma Love Journey.

The two-hour, two CD set includes Norman's David Petete and Brady Neal, both of whom work in corrections and sing at the Northeast Baptist Church on Rock Creek Road.

Jones, a morning radio personality, is master of ceremonies on the live concert format album.

"The compelling stories of the songs made each one so personal that they became part of the music. This CD is an evening people will enjoy. It's a musical journey across the love found in the state," Jones said.

On the CD, Neal sings an original song he surprised his bride with at their wedding. Petete's song became his favorite when he heard it performed by Donnie Osmond.

The CD is available at INTEGRIS-Baptist Gift Shop/OKC, Charlie's Records/OKC, Energy Force/Edmond, Loving Touch Mall/Yukon, Lasting Impressions/Shawnee, A Touch of Home/Woodward, and online at www.cdbaby.com.
